

Wetlands

By: Kylie F.

What features and landforms make a wetland?

- Ponds
- Creeks
- Flooded plains
- Marsh

Why are wetlands important to the environment?

- Some of people's water supply is in the ponds that are later purified.
- It is a home for animals

What types of birds are found in a wetland habitat?

- Wood ducks
- Snow geese

Name two animals and insects that are mostly found in the Jarrett Nature Center wetlands

- Geese
- Frogs
- Water bugs
- Dragonfly

Why are wetlands important for wildlife?

- Because many kinds of life need shallow water for a part or all of their life.
- It is a place for the animals to cool down.
- It's a safe place to raise young animals.
- It is a gathering place for animals.

Bibliography

➤ www.discoveryeducation.com

